SOCIAL

A Musical Treat.

The artists recital that will be given by the Marcato Musical Club Thursday evening, February 10, in the First Baptist church, beginning at 8:15 o'clock, will be one of the greatest musical feasts Clarksburg will have this season. The artists are from the Metropolitan Grand Concert Company, and are composed of Miss Luella Chilson-Ohrman, soprano; Miss Adah Campbell Hussey, contralto; Mr. J. Humbert Duffey, tenor; and Mr. Frederick Martin, bass.

Miss Ohrman is said to possess a lyric soprano voice. Mr. Duffey is an artist of rare attainments and sings with delightful style and finish and has reached a position among the few great tenors of the day. Miss Hussey has a rich, full, contralto voice with a great range and compass. Mr. Martin is looked upon as the finest baritone and concert basso of America.

It is hoped the music-loving people of the city will turn out en masse to hear and enjoy this well-chosen quartet to close the five artists recitals of this season.

Card Club Entertained.

Notwithstanding the dreary weather, a large number of women attended the meeting of the Five Table Card Club this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cecil C. Jarvis on West Main street.

Four tables were arranged for progressive euchre and at the completion of the games refreshments were served in the dining room from a table in the dining room from a prettily appointed table which had for its centerpiece a cluster of spring blossoms. Mrs. Hugh Jarvis presided at the salad table, coffee was poured by Miss Ellen Graham Bassel, and they were assisted in serving the guests by Mrs. Paul Robinson and Miss Garrard.

Among those who enjoyed this popular diversion were Mrs. J. Carl Vance, Miss Garrard, Mrs. John Ewell, Mrs. Albert Rapp, Mrs. Charles Findlay, Mrs. Mord Lewis, Mrs. Anson D. Parr, Mrs. Lynn S. Horner, Mrs. Bland Brannon, Miss Duncan, of Culpepper, Va.; Mrs. John B. Winfield, Mrs. Dudley Britt, Mrs. Arthur K. Thorn, Mrs. Harry T. Wilson, Mrs. Clarence Parr and Mrs. Harry Curtin.

Coming Social Events.

A number of social events are scheduled for the remainder of February, as will be seen from the following:

Miller, Mrs. Wells Goodykointz, Mrs. C. L. Shaver, Mrs. Judson Williams, Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Grace Robinson, of Fairmont. Charleston Gazette.

Sale Continued.

The Valentine sale given Thursday evening in the Parish house by women of the Episcopal church was most successful and it will be continued this afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock as there are still quite a number of attractive valentines on hand. Tea and wafers will be served by Mrs. Lynn S. Horner and Miss Garrard and the tables at

THE WOMAN'S STORE

CLEAR THE DECK SALE!

Within our recollection there have been no such Bargains as this Sale provides.

Our stocks are large—and season's end is near. These two causes contribute to the deepest underselling we recall in this locality. Prices are vigorously reduced to figures that represent but the merest fractions of usual worth.

Quick action is wanted. Soon a new season draws on the horizon of the business world. Soon our every energy and attention must be devoted to receiving, marking and displaying new goods. Present stocks must go—decks must be cleared. There can be only one result in a go-ahead business like this—deeply downward drop the prices throughout the store.
